

What Your Technology Resource Teacher Can Do For You!

- Help you plan lessons that integrate technology.
- Look at your curriculum and suggest ways to integrate technology.
- Assist you with lessons in the computer lab.
- Research and evaluate software.
- Create handouts for students with screen shots to show them how to complete an assignment on the computer.
- Search for internet resources on any topic.
- Prepare lists of internet resources for students to use in a lesson.
- Train you on how to use hardware.
- Help you to create PowerPoint notes that can be shared and used each year.
- Help you create a database of questions for SOL review.
- Help you create activities and reviews for students that incorporate technology.
- Teach a mini-technology lesson as a demonstration on what you can do.
- Train you on how to use software.
- Show you how to complete tasks using technology. Ex: lesson plans, tests, communication with parents
- GroupWise use training
- Conduct department training on technology.
- Help you to create a homework website for students/parents.
- Help you apply for technology grants.

What Your Technology Resource Teacher Can't Do For You!

- Fix your computer, printer, etc.
- Change your password or any other network functions.
- Buy you new equipment/software.